To the Nobility, Gentry, and all who are Admirers of the extraordinary Productions of Nature.

To be ſeen at Mr. WALL's, Coachmaker, at Elvet-bridge-end,

MARIA TERESA,

THE AMAZING

Corsican Fairy,

Who had the Honour of being ſhewn three Times before Their MAJESTIES.

THIS moſt aſtoniſhing part of the human ſpecies, was born in the iſland of CORSICA, on the mountain of STATA OTA, in the Year 1743. She is only 34 inches high, weighs 26lb. a Child of two years of age has larger hands and feet Her amazing Littleneſs, (which never fails to make the moſt ſurpriſing Impreſſion on the Mind of the Spectator) cannot entitle her to the Character of a Dwarf, for beſides that of her being a Beauty, her exact Proportion and Symetry, may without the leaſt Falſhood, allow her to be called one of the moſt perfect and admirable Productions of Human Nature in Miniature. She is poſſeſſed of a great deal of vivacity and ſpirit, can ſpeak Italian and French, and gives the inquiſitive mind an agreeable Entertainment. In ſhort, ſhe is the moſt extraordinary curioſity ever known, or even heard of in hiſtory, and the curious in all Countries where ſhe has been ſhewn, pronounce her to be the fineſt diſplay of human Nature in miniature they ever ſaw

At the Deſire of any Lady, ſhe will move a Minuet, or Dance a Corſican Jig.

She is to be ſeen by any number of Perſons, from ten in the Morning 'till nine in the Evening.

 Admittance to Ladies and Gentlemen 1s each; Tradeſmen 6d.

N. B. Ladies &c. deſirous of ſeeing her at their own Houſe, by ſending their Addreſs will be waited on

Durham: Printed by P. BARWICK in Queen-ſtreet.

20 July 1775.

I ſaw this little woman July 25th her legs & feet were in the nicest proportion & agreeable to all the other parts of her body. The most disagreeable thing about her was her nose, wch was Roman, and rather too large, her hair very dark.